

US172W - Finance

Présentation

Prérequis

Master in Management MIM M1 Group: Core Curriculum

Objectifs pédagogiques

This course is an introduction to corporate finance and capital markets. It provides participants with a good understanding on topics such as project and company valuation, real options, measuring risks and return, stock pricing and the performance of trading strategies, corporate financing policy, the cost of capital and risk management.

Programme

Contenu

- The place of finance and the role of financial markets in the corporation life.
- The basic tools used in making decisions in corporate finance : time value of money, risk and return, financial statements analysis, valuation.
- Investment decisions (criteria, capital budgeting, decision process, the option to invest) : the operational side of the corporation
- Financing decisions and financial markets : the financial side of the corporation
- the capital structure with the debt policy, the hybrid products and the dividend decision,
- interactions of the investment decisions and the financing decisions through the cash flow routes and the cost of capital (debt and equity) and beyond through the corporate development capacities and corporate value.
- basic concepts and organization of financial markets with interest rate markets, stocks markets, options, hybrid products, currency markets, valuation concepts and methods, recent moves.
- Further topics : mergers & acquisitions and corporate governance

Modalités de validation

- Contrôle continu
- Examen final

Mis à jour le 13-03-2025

Code : US172W

Unité spécifique de type mixte
8 crédits

Responsabilité nationale :
EPN15 - Stratégies / Christelle
PEZON

Contact national :

EPN 15 Stratégies

2 rue Conté

75003 Paris

01 58 80 84 24

Mouna Tazi

mouna-sonia.tazi@lecnam.net