

US173J - Safety and Health at work

Présentation

Prérequis

Master in Management MIM M1

Objectifs pédagogiques

The course aims to provide students with in depth understanding of conventional and emerging perceptions of risk, crisis management and resilience at work.

It addresses the range of traditional issues within risk and crisis management as well as multi-disciplinary perspectives. It explores risk behavior in organizational and societal contexts: issues of sustainability, environmental debates, health and safety concerns

Compétences

Skills to be acquired:

- Ability to identify and describe the interdependency of risks related issues and consequences on health matters within an organization
- Ability to evaluate critically the organization's impacts of health matters in and out the work context, enlightened by corporate social responsibility (CSR) principles
- Ability to interpret findings and draw appropriate actions plans

Programme

Contenu

- Legal regulation of health and safety at work
- Rules, standards, management systems
- Risks mapping and evaluation
- Risks prevention and precaution
- Professional training and specific communication tools
- The managers place in health and safety internal policy

Modalités de validation

- Contrôle continu

Description des modalités de validation

Evaluation Scheme: Continuous assessment.

Mis à jour le 13-03-2025

Code : US173J

Unité spécifique de type mixte
4 crédits

Responsabilité nationale :

EPN15 - Stratégies / Flore
BARCELLINI

Contact national :

EPN 15 Stratégies

2 rue Conté

75003 Paris

01 58 80 84 24

Mouna Tazi

mouna-sonia.tazi@lecnam.net