

US412X - English for Science Communication

Présentation

Prérequis

- Avoir validé la 1e année de Bachelor Océanographe-Prospecteur

OU

- Par VAE/VES

Objectifs pédagogiques

To improve students' oral and written command of English for scientific study

To enhance students' ability to read and interpret academic material

To develop students' communicative skills

To develop scientific writing skills

Compétences

Effectively communicate at a level of English appropriate for scientific study at a British university

Read and construct texts in an academic style as well as participate in seminars.

Demonstrate experience in working as part of a team through the medium of English by producing group reports and presentations.

Programme

Contenu

The module provides an opportunity for students to gain support and practice in using English in an academic context with specific reference to scientific studies. It provides them with the skills to operate accurately and confidently as independent learners and in teamwork situations. It includes:

Techniques for, and practice of, formal group presentations and independent learning

Techniques, lexis and conventions of scientific discourse

Structures and lexis appropriate to understanding academic texts

Compositional and layout skills appropriate to academic study

Exposure to a variety of aural texts

Grammar analysis

Description des modalités de validation

Assessment Criteria

Presentation (CW) 1

Essay 1

🌟 Valide le 18-01-2019

Code : US412X

10 crédits

Responsabilité nationale :

EPN08 - Institut national des sciences et techniques de la mer (INTECHMER) / Marie-laure MAHAUT

Contact national :

Cnam-Intechmer

Boulevard de collignon

BP324

50110 Cherbourg en cotentin

02 33 88 73 40

Service scolarité

scolarite-intechmer@cnam.fr